

Kent Sievers

220 Castle Pine Dr., Papillion, Neb. 68133

402-850-7120

kent@kentsievers.com

<http://www.kentsievers.com>

STRENGTHS/SKILLS

Experienced photojournalist. Published author. Innovative problem solver. Mentor. Teacher. Former small business owner. Quick learner. I'm proficient in Adobe Photoshop and Lightroom, PhotoMechanic, Scrivener and all things Apple.

WORK EXPERIENCE:

- 2000 present - Omaha World-Herald Staff Photographer.
During my time at the World-Herald I've earned numerous photography awards as well as the newsroom's highest honor, the Bob Dorr award, celebrating dedication, loyalty, service to readers and dogged pursuit of the truth.
In 2013 I revolutionized our photo coverage of the College World Series by networking our cameras to an ftp server, allowing photographers to file pictures directly from their shooting positions.
- 2008 - 2010 Part-time Apple Store specialist/creative.
- 1990 - 2000 - Editorial & Commercial Freelance Photographer Omaha, Neb.
Editorial clients included the New York Times, Washington Post, Time, Newsweek, the Wall Street Journal and Getty Images.
Commercial clients included Creighton University's public relations, development, law school and sports departments as well as Alegent and Methodist hospitals.

References available on request.